

Bruno De Pace

Director, Practice Management

Strategic Business Development

Bruno is the Director, Practice Management within the Strategic Business Development Group.

He is responsible for supporting advisors within CI's key channel partner network in the areas of professional development and practice management.

Bruno is a skilled coach, consultant, presenter and facilitator who has worked with 1000s of advisors across the country, helping them build better businesses to be able to deliver more value to their clients.

